Good day in the field Len Perreault for two pirouettes and accompanying assists at 3B. Paul Murray for multiple great fielding plays. Alexi Maravel for a couple of full-run grabs, one right along the fence in RF. John White for a true unassisted DP, catching the liner and tagging the runner off the base. Bill Cusick for organizing the infield, which led to a number of double plays. George Mallet II for a backhanded stab on a “screaming” liner in LCF. Bruce Arbonies for “a great game at first,” including a scoop on a low throw. John Bonner in RF for a number of skilled plays. John Kiely at 2B for a catch going back into the outfield. Paul Rix for outstanding play at 3B, including a diving catch of a liner, and making three 5-3 plays in the same inning. Brad Robbins for catches of two offline throws and tagging the runner both times. Mike Pasini for a charging catch of a hard liner. Mike Martinelli for a diving stop deep in the hole with a throw from his knees to force the runner at 3B. Larry Bruskin for tracking down multiple liners and flies at SF. Joe Guiducci and John Nielsen for “numerous incredible plays” in the infield.

Coach Comments Coach Hockman thanks Sean Papich for subbing, and of the game, wrote it was the “most entertaining game of the season. The lead changed seven times” and “the game wasn’t decided until the last out.” Assistant Gary Marino said Len Perreault’s spinning pirouette plays were “a sneak peek at his Nutcracker routine,” and added “Thanks for sparing us the tights, Lenny.” Betcha he looks great in a tutu. Coach Goose commented that his outfield “caught more flies than a week-old buffalo carcass.” Yech! Coach Thorne thanks Ed Fegreus and Neil Feinberg for filling in, and added his crew scored six in the ninth and had the bases loaded with Rich McLeish on deck; but no cigar. Coach Grasso sent in congratulations “to Bill Spooner for sucking it up with his various injuries and pitching a great game.” Pat also added confidently that his team was “ready to win 3 games in the playoffs.” Watch out!
