Managers Game Report

Hitmen – Managers John Mann/ Duke Schneider

Hitmen 19 - Old Time Ballers 10

An undermanned hitman team took on an undermanned old time baller's squad. For the first time in a few weeks the hitmen came away with a victory. The balls were jumping off the hitmen's bats. Paul Rix led the way with five hits four of them doubles. He must be working out running sprints to get all those doubles. Duke was right behind him with four hits. Mike Grossman, Jim Pare and John Mann had three hits each. Well it's off to the cape tournament for a lot of the Friday 70 players. Good luck to all them. The season is winding down let's all the teams enjoy the final few weeks before that cold air punches in.

OLD TIME BALLERS – Manager Frank DiCristofaro

Old Time Ballers 10 - Hitmen 19

It seems that vacations and the Cape Cod Tournaments took their toll on our Friday game. The undermanned Ballers were annihilated by the under staffed Hitmen by a score of 19-10. As I search for a silver lining as I review this through beating at the hands of the Hitmen, I can report that every member of the team had at least one hit.

The offense was led by John Boehmke with a 5 for 5 day. Paul Marshall and Mike Smith chipped in with four hits (Mike had a double in his total), with three hits from Bill Fairweather and John white (John had a double in his total). And two hits from Mike Fata, Dave Hohmann, Brian Sullivan and George Mallett.

We are hoping to regroup and get the band back together to provide more competition next week!

RAIDERS – Managers Phil Scorgie/Gerry Cetrone

Raiders 21 – Grey Sox 11

The Raiders defeated the Grey Sox 21-11. The Grey Sox were missing some key players only having eleven which hurt them defensively. The game results would certainly have been different if the Grey Sox had been at full strength.

The Raiders offense was clicking with everyone reaching first base at least once and many players having multiple hit games. 13 base on balls was a big factor in the 21 runs the Raiders scored. Dave Hockman 4 walks, Goose 3 walks and Bradford 2 walks showed discipline and patience at the plate. Cetrone led the hitting attack going 4 for 5 including a triple, double and a walk. Bradford was 3 for 4 with 2 walks. Savery Moore and Chamberlain were both 3 for 4 with 1 walk each. Moriarty was 3 for 3 with a Sacrifice fly. Mazzone, Howie and Malone were all 2 for 4. Gibson and Longo each had 1 hit.

Defense played its usual steady game. Savery Moore (subbing) filled in nicely at SS making many plays from short to first. Chamberlain was excellent in the outfield making several nice catches. Malone, Gibson and Bradford all made nice put outs. The infield around the horn Moriarty, Mazzone and Howie shined and Longo had several nice picks at first. Goose made his first catch at the plate taking a throw to cut down the runner at home - unfortunately he was catching for the other team.

Gerry Cetrone earned this week's Geezer Award for his strong offensive production. Worthy of mentioned: Gerry's one at bat where he didn't reach base resulted in two RBI's while grounding into a 4-6-3 double play.

Grey Sox – Managers Bill Rust/Art Hassett

Grey Sox 11 - Raiders 21

A shorthanded grey sox team displayed true grit in a 21-11 loss.. Despite the loss Donny (not so) Young had an all-star-like performance at 2 base, making numerous difficult plays all game. Hitting-wise, the grey sox were led by Jeff Scheiber and Dan Sides, who both went 5-5. Three players with 3 hits each were Jim Bryer, Bob Clifford, and Pat Grasso. With Bill Spooner out battling the Gout, John Williams filled in admirably as our pitcher.
